Twentynine Palms Chamber of Commerce reorganizes its board

At its October 15 board meeting, the Twentynine Palms Chamber of Commerce appointed a new Vice-President, Secretary, and board member. The appointments were made due to Rob Fleck's resignation from the board, effective October 1. Fleck, who was the board's Vice-President, is the Chamber's new Executive Director

At the meeting, Board President Gary Daigneault appointed Gary DeMaroney Vice President, Syndee Slayton was appointed secretary, and Jim Shirley was named as a new board member to take Fleck's seat. The appointments were confirmed by a full Board vote

DeMaroney, general manager of Copper Mountain Radio, previously served as secretary, and Slayton, executive director of the Copper Mountain College Foundation, was a board member. Newcomer Shirley is a three-year member of the Twentynine Palms Citizens Patrol and will serve out the remainder of Fleck's four-year term.

"I wanted to join the board to help improve Twentynine Palms and to reach the vision of what the Chamber wants," Shirley said.
