Roughley Manor hosts holiday Chamber mixer

Roughley Manor will host the 16th annual holiday Chamber mixer on Thursday, Dec. 10, 2009, from 5 to 7 p.m. in its Great Room. Twentynine Palms Chamber members, supporters, business owners, and the public are invited.

Roughley Manor was the homestead of Bill and Elizabeth Crozer Campbell, who began construction on the main house, museum, and barn in December 1924. The main house, finished in 1928, is three stories tall with two suites and five fireplaces, including one in each suite. The grounds total 25 acres and feature seven unique buildings, five of which are individual cottages.

Gary and Jan Peters, current owners of Roughley Manor, will provide hors d'oeuvres such as stuffed mushrooms, cheese balls, desserts, angel hair pasta, meatballs, and vegetable plates. Live Christmas music will be provided on the manor's baby grand piano. Beverages will be available. The manor will be decked out in holiday finery, providing a festive Christmas atmosphere to all attending the mixer.

Hosting the annual holiday Chamber mixer is Roughley Manor's Christmas present to the community. "To us, it's a thank-you not only to the business community, but to the community itself," Jan Peters said.

Roughley Manor is located at 74744 Joe Davis Drive in Twentynine Palms. For more information or directions, call the Twentynine Palms Chamber of Commerce at 760-367-3445.
