This month's Featured Members are The Rib Company on April 3, 2009 and Cowboy Attic on April 17, 2009.

The Rib Company

The Rib Company is celebrating its 12th anniversary of business in Twentynine Palms. Everyone is invited to come in, have a piece of birthday cake and see what all the excitement is about!

While ribs are the restaurant's primary (and most popular) feature, The Rib Company also specializes in hand-cut choice steaks, seafood, sandwiches, salads, burgers, chicken, and even throws in exotic fares such as alligator, kangaroo and wild boar. The emphasis is always on freshness, with most dishes and desserts such as soups, salads, cheesecake, cobblers and side dishes made daily.

The restaurant recently revamped its look with new carpets and tile, and spruced up its menu with pasta dishes, fish and chips, and $6.99 lunches. Its latest promotion is Wild Wine Wednesdays, where all bottles of wine are half price.

The Rib Company is open Monday through Thursday from 4 to 9 p.m., and Friday through Sunday from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Cowboy Attic

As a specialty store, local family-owned business Cowboy Attic brings country flair to Twentynine Palms. In its 35 years of business in town, Cowboy Attic has gone from carrying only new clothing to secondhand clothing, and has now expanded into a great variety of items.

"There's really something for everyone in here," said owner Robin Anaya. "You have to see it to believe it."

Customers can find handmade quilts, cowboy boots and hats, antiques, gifts, collectibles, greeting cards, cacti, souvenirs, casual and elegant home décor, horse tack, one-of-a-kind crosses, leather jackets, spurs, art, jewelry, Twentynine Palms souvenirs, and adult and children's clothing. Cowboy Attic carries brands like Tony Lama, Lucchese, Justin, Larry Mahan, and J. Chisholm. She and her salespeople enjoy helping customers find exactly what they're looking for, and Cowboy Attic can order specific items if they are not in stock, Anaya said.

Stop in to see what Cowboy Attic has to offer. Cowboy Attic is open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Sunday, noon to 4 p.m.

Chamber members will get a 10 percent discount on all merchandise on April 17 during "Let's Go Shop."
