Twentynine Palms Historical Society to host November mixer

The Twentynine Palms Chamber of Commerce and the Twentynine Palms Historical Society will co-host the Chamber mixer on Thursday, November 19, 2009, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Old Schoolhouse Museum in Twentynine Palms. Chamber members, supporters, business owners, and the public are invited.

Chamber President Gary Daigneault and Executive Director Rob Fleck will inform attendees about the Chamber's relocation to a new Downtown Headquarters, the plans to partner with the City for a new Visitors Center, a fund-raising trip to the Palms Springs Follies, the new and improved winter light parade set for December 19, and many more plans and services offered by the newly reinvigorated Twentynine Palms Chamber of Commerce!

Delicious food and beverages will be available. A fund-raising raffle will feature items generously donated by Chamber members Williams Insurance, Augie Enterprises, the Twentynine Palms Historical Society, Cowboy Attic, Desert Ratz Grafix, the Bowladium and more.

The Old Schoolhouse Museum is located at 6760 National Park Dr., right across the street from the entrance to the 29 Palms Inn.

For more information or directions, call the Twentynine Palms Chamber of Commerce at 760-367-3445.
